

Code of Conduct for MSA Events

MSA values the diversity of views, expertise, opinions, backgrounds, and experiences reflected among MSA members and the broader mycology community, and is committed to providing a safe, productive and welcoming environment for all participants of MSA meetings and events. MSA meetings and events can serve as an effective forum to consider and debate science-relevant viewpoints in an orderly, respectful, and fair manner. This Code of Conduct is important to promoting diversity and creating an inclusive, supportive, and collaborative environment for all peoples.

All MSA meetings and events participants – including, but not limited to, attendees, speakers, volunteers, exhibitors, MSA staff, members of the media, vendors, and service providers (hereinafter “participants”) – are expected to abide by this MSA Code of Conduct and by the MSA policy for harassment and discrimination (Appendix B of the MSA manual of operations). This Code of Conduct applies in all venues, including ancillary events and social gatherings, and on-line forums and discussions associated with the MSA.

Expected Behavior

- Treat all participants with kindness, respect and consideration, valuing a diversity of views and opinions (including those you may not share).
- Communicate openly, with respect for other participants, critiquing ideas rather than individuals.
- Refrain from demeaning, discriminatory, or harassing behavior and speech directed toward other participants.
- Be mindful of your surroundings and of your fellow participants. Alert MSA staff if you notice a dangerous situation or someone in distress.
- Respect the rules and policies of the meeting venue, hotels, MSA-contracted facility, or any other venue.

Unacceptable Behavior

Harassment, intimidation, or discrimination in any form. Harassment includes speech or behavior that is not welcome or is personally offensive. Behavior that is acceptable to one person may not be acceptable to another, so use discretion to be certain respect is communicated. Harassment intended in a joking manner still constitutes unacceptable behavior.

Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to:

- Physical or verbal abuse of any participant
- Unwelcome or offensive verbal comments or exclusionary behavior related to age, appearance or body size, employment or military status, ethnicity, gender identity and expression, individual lifestyle, marital status, national origin, physical or cognitive ability, political affiliation, sexual orientation, race, or religion
- Inappropriate physical contact

- Unwanted sexual attention
- Use of sexual or discriminatory images in public spaces or in presentations
- Deliberate intimidation, stalking, or following
- Harassing photography or recording, including taking photographs or recording of another individual's oral presentation or poster without the explicit permission of that individual and of MSA
- Sustained disruption of talks or other events
- Bullying behavior
- Retaliation for reporting unacceptable behavior

Immediate serious threat to public safety

Anyone experiencing or witnessing behavior that constitutes an immediate or serious threat to public safety at any time should contact local law enforcement (by calling 911) and immediately notifying facility security.

Reporting Unacceptable Behavior

- If you are not in immediate danger but feel that you are the subject of unacceptable behavior, have witnessed any such behavior, or have other concerns, please notify an MSA staff member (as soon as possible) who can work with appropriate MSA leadership to resolve the situation. All reports will be treated seriously and responded to promptly. If you are in immediate danger please call 911.
- To report incidents of any sort during or following an MSA event, please contact either Anne Pringle or Marc Cubeta.
 - Anne Pringle: aprangle2@wisc.edu, (510) 703-4421
 - Marc Cubeta: macubeta@ncsu.edu, (919) 602-8797
- Once MSA is notified staff will discuss the details first with the individual filing the complaint, then any witnesses who have been identified, and then the alleged offender before determining an appropriate course of action. Confidentiality will be maintained to the extent that it does not compromise the rights of others.

Consequences

- Anyone requested to stop unacceptable behavior is expected to comply immediately.
- MSA staff (or their designee) or security may take any immediate action deemed necessary and appropriate, including removal from the meeting or event without warning or refund.
- Further consequences may include prohibition from attending future meetings and events.
